<h2>Father</h2>

Putting food on the table and a roof overhead

Making sure that a child's basic needs are met is a major expression of love.
 For some parents throughout the world, it's also one that is not always easy to accomplish.

Making sacrifice

Putting a child's needs before your own sometimes means putting your wants, needs and desires on the back burner – indefinitely.

Providing protection from outside dangers

Parental responsibility includes always aiming to keep a child safe from harm.

<h2>Mother</h2>

Always being on call

Parents don't punch a time clock; they are always on duty.
 Even when a child is grown and living on his or her own, a parent's job is never done.

Teaching life skills

One day, your child will leave the nest. A parent's job in raising a child is to prepare the child for that day.

Supporting a child's interests and dreams

In most cases, if something is important to your child, even if you don't understand why, it is important that your child has your full, unquestioning support.
